Menu and content review

Everything on the website, in one place · 08 October 2026

Part 1 What still needs your decision

Part 2 Every word on the website, page by page

Part 3 Every dish and every price

Nothing in this document was invented. Every claim came from you.

Anything not confirmed is listed in Part 1 and is not published.

Part 1

What still needs your decision

Nine open points. Until each is settled, the website either leaves the item out or uses what you last confirmed. Tick a box when you have given an answer.

1. Opening hours

The site says "11 AM – 11 PM, every day". The previous contact page said Sunday 12–10. Which is right?
Shown in the header, footer, contact page, every style page and in the Google listing data.

2. The story behind the name "Daddu"

You asked for this on the About page but have not sent the wording. Nothing is published in its place — the section simply does not appear.
Send a paragraph and it will slot into the founder story automatically.

3. Customer reviews and the star rating

The old site claimed "4.8 from 242 reviews" and showed four testimonials. None of it could be verified, so all of it was removed, including from the Google search data.
Send real reviews (ideally ones that mention the difference between styles) and the section returns.

4. "Mumbai" and "Mumbai Twist"

The price sheet lists both, at identical prices (curry cut ₹1,000/kg, boneless ₹1,400/kg). They are currently shown as one Mumbai style.
If they are genuinely different dishes, say so and they will be split.

5. Kebab portions

The sheet labels Mutton Shami Kebab "2 pc" but gives two prices (₹195 / ₹390), and Veg Shami "6 pc" at ₹100 / ₹200. Both are shown as Half and Full.
Confirm how many pieces are in a half and a full.

6. Tagline spelling

The logo reads "Zayqo ki Kahani". Your notes used "Zaiko Ki Kahani" and "Zaaykon Ki Kahani". The logo spelling is used for the brand, and "Zaaykon Ki Kahani" for the podcast.
Pick one and it will be made consistent everywhere.

7. Order of the four styles

The running order is Kolkata, Lucknowi, Hyderabadi, Mumbai, as you asked. Note it is not ascending by spice: Hyderabadi (medium to hot) comes before Mumbai (medium).
If you wanted customers walked up the heat scale, Mumbai should come before Hyderabadi.

8. Photographs

The Google Drive folder could not be opened by the connected account, so the 14 photos you sent directly are the ones in use.
Share the folder, or send any extra photos, and they will be added.

9. Bulk serving figure

The order calculator works from "1 kg Lucknowi serves about 5–7": 1 kg per 5 people when biryani is the main dish, per 7 when there are other dishes.
Confirm, or give a different figure, and the calculator follows it.

Part 2

Every word on the website

Home • your taste, your choice

Heading	Your taste. Your choice.
Question	Why order first and discover later?
Body	People like different things. Biryani from different regions tastes different. So instead of telling you which biryani you should like, we would rather you experience the differences and decide for yourself.
Closing	Taste before you choose.

Home • taste before you choose

Heading	Taste Before You Choose
Intro	Your eyes can admire it. Your nose can enjoy its aroma. But will you love its taste? Take a bite and discover.
The five	Eyes — See the rice, colours and presentation. Nose — Smells the aroma. Ears — Hear stories, descriptions and recommendations. Skin — Feels warmth and texture. Taste buds — Discover the taste.
Character	Each of our biryanis has its own character — from the delicate flavours of Lucknow to the bold spices of Hyderabad and the distinctive taste of Kolkata.
Why	A photograph cannot tell you which one you will enjoy. Neither can someone else’s favourite.
The offer	That is why, at Daddu’s Biryani, we offer free tasting before you order.
Invitation	Try the different flavours. Discover your favourite. Order only what you love.
In Hindi	पहले चखें, फरि चुनें।

Taste buds are marked "the decider". The free-tasting offer sits in a dark panel with the WhatsApp button beside it.

Home • discover India through biryani

Heading	Discover India through biryani
Sub	Four cities. Four traditions. Four completely different biryani experiences.

Style • Kolkata

City	Kolkata (कोलकाता)
Short	Delicate • Aromatic • Aloo & egg tradition
Description	Lighter on spice, and it carries a potato and a boiled egg in the handi — a tradition Kolkata made its own. Ours is made in desi ghee.
Taste	Delicate and distinctive
Spice level	Mild
Character	Aloo and egg tradition
Ideal for	People wanting a different regional experience

Also used on its own page at /biryani/kolkata and in the comparison table.

Style • Lucknowi

City	Lucknow (लखनऊ)
Short	Subtle • Aromatic • Yakhni-led
Description	Meat is first cooked into a fragrant stock — the yakhni — and the rice is layered over it and sealed on dum. The flavour comes from aroma rather than heat, which is why a good Lucknowi is not supposed to be fiery.
Taste	Subtle and aromatic
Spice level	Mild
Character	Yakhni-led
Ideal for	People who enjoy aroma and balanced flavours

Also used on its own page at </biryani/lucknowi> and in the comparison table.

Style • Hyderabad

City	Hyderabad (हैदराबाद)
Short	Bold • Spicy • Masala-led marinade
Description	Built on a spiced marinade that goes under the rice before the dum. More heat, deeper colour and a stronger masala character. This is the biryani most people picture first.
Taste	Bold and masaledar
Spice level	Medium
Character	Masala-led marinade
Ideal for	People who enjoy stronger spice and masala

Also used on its own page at </biryani/hyderabad> and in the comparison table.

Style • Mumbai

City	Mumbai (मुंबई)
Short	Masaledar • Familiar • Masala cooked in the dum
Description	Curry-cut chicken in a masala this city grew up on, cooked into the rice during the dum rather than sitting on top of it. The hottest of the four, in a flavour Mumbai already knows.
Taste	Familiar and masaledar
Spice level	Hot
Character	Masala-led, cooked in the dum
Ideal for	People who want the most heat, in a flavour they already know

Also used on its own page at </biryani/mumbai> and in the comparison table.

Home • still deciding

Heading	Still can't decide?
Line	Don't guess. Taste before you choose.

Home • BIRYANIEGINEERING

Name	BIRYANIEGINEERING
Question	What happens when an engineer starts engineering biryani?
Body	Engineering teaches you that a good result should not happen by accident. We apply the same thinking to food — ingredients, process, proportions, dum and consistency — so the experience can be repeated every time.
The four	Right ingredients — Antibiotic-free chicken, rice good enough to hold its shape through the dum, and export-quality spices. Right process — Heat management — proper control of the heat at every stage of the cooking. Right proportion — Everything measured to an accuracy of 1 gram. No andaza. Consistent results — The same biryani this week as the one you liked last week.

Home • eating biryani is an art too

Heading	बरियानी बनाना अगर एक कला है, तो उसे खाना भी एक कला है।
Para 1	कुछ बरियानियों में सादा चावल होता है, मसाले वाला चावल होता है और चकिन या मटन के आसपास गाढ़ा मसाला भी होता है। उनका पूरा स्वाद लेने के लिए आपको हर कौर में इन सबका सही संतुलन बनाना पड़ता है — थोड़ा सादा चावल, थोड़ा मसाले वाला चावल, थोड़ा मसाला और साथ में चकिन या मटन।
Para 2	यह संतुलन बन जाए, तो हर कौर का आनंद अलग ही होता है!
Para 3	लेकिन हर कोई ऐसा कौर बनाने का अभ्यस्त नहीं होता। कई बार शुरुआत में सादा चावल ज़्यादा खा लिया जाता है और आखिर में मसाला बच जाता है। पहले स्वाद हल्का लगता है, फिर बहुत तेज़। बरियानी अच्छी बनी होने के बावजूद उसका पूरा आनंद नहीं मलि पाता।
Para 4	Daddu's Biryani में हमने इसी बात का ध्यान रखा है। हमारा प्रयास है कि बरियानी का स्वाद चावल के हर दाने में बसे, ताकि आपको हर बार सही अनुपात मिलाने में ध्यान न लगाना पड़े।
Para 5	चकिन या मटन के साथ खाइए, या सिर्फ़ चावल का एक कौर लीजिए — उसमें भी उस बरियानी की अपनी पहचान महसूस हो: लखनवी की नज़ाकत, हैदराबादी का मसालेदार स्वाद, मुंबई का अपना अंदाज़ या कोलकाता की खुशबू।
Para 6	यहाँ तक कि एक छोटा बच्चा भी अपनी पसंद की बरियानी का पूरा आनंद ले सके — बिना यह सीखे कि चावल और मसाले को मिलाकर सही कौर कैसे बनाना है।
Closing	हर कौर बनाने की मेहनत हमारी रसोई में हो, ताकि आपकी थाली में हर कौर का आनंद मलि।

Written in Hindi, as supplied. Shown beside a photograph of biryani being eaten and the diagram of flavour reaching every grain.

Home • what you actually get

Heading	What you actually get
Body	Most places tell you it "serves 4". We would rather show you exactly what arrives.
Sizes	Half — 350–375 g served, 450 ml container, 1 drumstick Full — 550–575 g served, 750 ml container, 2 drumsticks 1 kg (Lucknowi) — 10 drumsticks, About 2.8–3.0 kg cooked, Serves about 5–7 (Depending on appetite and what else is being served.)
Curry cut	1 kg curry cut: 18–20 pieces. No neck, no rib cage.

These are your figures. They also appear on the menu page behind "What you get", and in the PDF menu.

Home and menu • add-ons

Heading	Mirchi ka Salan
Body	Someone may love the aroma and character of a Lucknowi but still want more heat. Rather than turning the Lucknowi into something it is not, add Mirchi ka Salan and set the heat yourself.
Principle	Keep the biryani honest. Let you control the heat.
The three	Mirchi ka Salan — Available with every biryani style. Extra masala — Available for Hyderabadi Biryani on selected 1 kg bulk orders, prepared with additional onion and tomato masala. Bulk additions — Kaju, mushroom and bell pepper on selected bulk orders. Ask us while ordering.

No prices are shown for these, because none appear in the price sheet.

Heading	Biryani for 10 or 100?
Body	Office lunches, team celebrations, society gatherings, birthdays and family orders. Tell us the headcount and we will work out the quantity with you.
Events	Office lunches • Corporate events • Birthdays • Society events • Family gatherings • Celebrations • Parties
Calculator	Asks: how many guests, veg / mixed / non-veg, which biryani, and whether biryani is the main dish or served with other food.

The estimate is labelled a starting point, not a quote.

Home • the Discovery Challenge

Heading	The Daddu's Biryani Discovery Challenge
Body	Come in, try the styles side by side, and see which one your palate picks. Most people are surprised — the biryani they order out of habit is not always the one they like most.
Steps	Taste the styles — Compare Lucknowi, Hyderabadi, Kolkata and Mumbai side by side. Notice the difference — Aroma, heat, and how the flavour sits in the rice. Order what you love — Then order the one your taste chose, not the one you assumed.
Button	Ask about the tasting experience

Our Story page

Headline	What happens when an engineer starts engineering biryani?
Founder	Kailash Gaekwad, Founder, Daddu's Biryani
The story	Kanpur, and a taste you carry with you I grew up in Kanpur, where the biryani around me had a particular character — more aroma than fire, and a flavour that sat inside the rice rather than on top of it. You do not think of it as a style when you are young. It is simply what biryani tastes like. Mumbai, and a flavour that had gone missing Then I moved to Mumbai. There is plenty of good biryani here, but the one I grew up on was not on any menu I could find. That became an itch. Not a complaint — a question. Why does biryani taste so different in different places? Travelling and tasting, with a notebook So I started eating my way through it, and writing things down. Hyderabad was the big one — tasting it where it belongs is not the same as tasting it anywhere else. I kept notes on what changed: the marinade, the spice, the way the rice behaved, what the ghee did, what the dum did. Experimenting instead of copying Recipes are easy to find and easy to follow. They are also easy to get wrong, because they tell you the steps but not the reasons. I would rather understand why something works, so I cooked the same thing many times over, changing one thing at a time, until each regional style tasted like itself and not like the others. Where the engineering comes in I am an engineer by training, and engineering leaves you with one stubborn habit: a good result should not be an accident. If it is good today it should be good next Tuesday. That thinking is what turned a hobby into Daddu's Biryani, and it is what we mean by BIRYANIEGINEERING.

The "Daddu" name chapter is not published — see Part 1, item 2.
